Have you already taken a moment to think about love today? Maritim celebrates Valentine's Day

Whether newly in love or happily partnered for many years, couples around the world embrace Valentine's Day as a chance to celebrate their relationship and enjoy a special break together. This year, it pays to plan ahead, as 14 February 2026 falls on a Saturday—making it ideal for a romantic weekend getaway.

To mark the occasion, Maritim Hotels are unveiling a Valentine's Special across their German locations for the first time, combining an overnight stay with a romantic candlelight dinner. The offer is bookable online and includes a 20 percent discount on the current daily rate.

“Thanks to personalized service, first-class cuisine, and warm hospitality, our hotels create the perfect setting for an unforgettable Valentine’s weekend. All you have to do is get to the hotel, relax, enjoy the moment, and create lasting memories together,” says Erik van Kessel, Managing Director of Operations at Maritim Hotelgesellschaft mbH. In addition to an overnight stay in a double room, a welcome aperitif, and a four-course dinner, the Valentine’s package also includes the extensive Maritim sparkling wine breakfast buffet as well as complimentary use of the swimming pool.

At Maritim’s resort hotels, couples can easily turn Valentine’s Day into a longer escape, enjoying relaxed walks in the park or by the sea, indulgent wellness moments, or a cocktail at the hotel bar to wind down the evening together

The Valentine’s package is available at Maritim’s centrally located city hotels all over Germany as well as at the resort hotels in Bad Wildungen, Timmendorfer Strand right at the Baltic Sea and Titisee-Neustadt in the Black Forest, and can be booked from Thursday, 12 February through Sunday, 15 February 2026. (Prices per person vary depending on the selected hotel and the current daily rate.)

TIP: The four-course candlelight menu including aperitif is, of course, also available to all the romantics out there who are not staying at a Maritim hotel. On Valentine’s Day, Maritim’s culinary teams will indulge guests with dishes including salmon and veal fillet, complemented by a chocolate dessert, while also offering vegan options.
